Joseph's Easter
W.H. Vanstone

'He's gone,' says Joseph: and, with Pilate's leave,
Eases the nails and lowers him from the tree,
Wraps him in reverent and tender thoughts
And lays him in the cave called Memory.

That cave is deeply hewn in Joseph's heart:
All that's within will always be his own:
In memory's cave the treasure of his past
Is safe for ever, walled and sealed by stone.

'He's safe,' says Joseph, 'safe in this cool place,
And no one now can take my Lord away:
In years to come I'll still see his dear face
As clearly as I saw it yesterday.'

'He's gone,' cries Joseph later, in despair.
But Mary says, He's left this word for you:
He cannot rest content to be your past -
So he has risen, to be your future too.'

Book of the Month is "Easter Uncut" by Carl Laferton. This book retells the story of one of the most enthralling weeks in history, through the eyes of a man who saw it all, John, the disciple. You'll see not only what happened at the first Easter, but how these events can transform your life, your hopes and your future. The book is an easy read and can be borrowed from the church library in the Hall of Fellowship

Multi opportunity evening at DPC! Friday 28th April come along to the church for a social evening - we supply the cheese, biscuits, nibbles, teas, coffee, juice (you bring whatever else you might like to drink); a Nepal catch up evening - Sandy Sneddon the Asia convener of World Mission Council is coming to tell us about Nepal and update us on the build a House campaign; a fund raiser - you have the chance if you wish to contribute whatever you wish to that fund; and the church's Stated Annual Meeting, required every year - a chance to ask questions about the accounts, but also about what your church has been doing this past year. This should be very brief, the main part of the evening being for Nepal and socialising. 7.30pm start - endpoint before 9.00 pm for those who either want to get home, or are on their way out for the night, or stay on and chat a little longer.

The last Guild meeting until the Autumn will be on Wednesday 19 April at 7.30pm. We invite you to our AGM and to hear all about the Path of Renewal Movement described by Richard Lloyd.
