

Prayer Topics

In this season of Lent:-

Sunday - We pray for those who, like Jesus, face temptation today. May they put their trust in You. And so stand firm in time of trial or testing. Let them hear Your still small voice guiding them in the ways of peace and truth.

Monday - We pray for those for whom life is a wilderness experience: the sick, the suffering, the sorrowing, the hungry, the homeless, and the refugee. May the wilderness be for them a place of Christ: the place of preparation for ways of new living.

Tuesday - We pray for those who, like Jesus, follow the path of self-denial. May they find in their hearts the spirit of love that seeks no reward, and the deepest joy of sacrificing comforts to others.

Wednesday - We pray for our society which glories in success rather than self-sacrifice. Open the eyes of our leaders that they may see a vision of society as it might be, an image of that perfect kingdom yet to come.

Thursday - We pray for one another, that Lent may be a springtime for our souls: a time of repentance, a time of renewal, a time of spiritual nourishment and growth in grace.

Friday - We pray for ourselves that we will be prepared to fast from judging others and feast on Christ dwelling in them, to fast from discontent and feast on gratitude and to fast from bitterness and feast on forgiveness.

Saturday - We pray that through the discipline of Lent we will take up our cross and follow Christ day by day and so know His peace which passes all understanding.

Book of the Month is "Child of the Covenant" by Michele Guinness

The author was brought up to observe all the traditions and ritual of her Jewish culture. An encounter with a Christian made Michele delve into the Bible for answers. In this lively, humorous account, she tells how she came face to face with the Messiah and had to make sense of being both Jewish and Christian! This book is an easy, informative and enjoyable read. This book can be borrowed from the church library in the Hall of Fellowship.

Support Services Meeting - Tuesday 21st March @ 7.00 pm (Worship Area)

Community Outreach Group Meeting - Tuesday 21st March @ 7.30 pm (Room 3)

What was that all about? - Come along after the service on Sunday 26th March 2017 for about 30 minutes to look more deeply at the sermon given that morning, to discuss it, question further and wonder how it fits in with our own lives. No-one has to say anything, if you'd rather just come along and listen to the discussion that is completely acceptable.

On Sunday 2 April the ABI Singers will sing the ancient Office of Compline in St Fillan's Church, Aberdour, at 6.30pm. It will be a great opportunity to share in an act of Worship going back to the fourth century AD. (The ABI Singers are an ecumenical group of musicians, including some members of St Fillan's. The core group were members of the disbanded choir of St Serf's Scottish Episcopal Church in Burntisland).
