

Prayer Topics

“Train up a child in the way he should go and, when he is old, he will not depart from it.” Proverbs 22:6

Sunday - Today give thanks for the children and teachers in our Junior church and Discoverers as they worship with us in church today. Pray for them as the school holidays begin on Thursday. Pray for the "S Club" as it meets over the holiday period on a Sunday morning.

Monday - Give thanks for the young families in our congregation, and pray that the parents will be enabled to keep their baptismal vows. Pray that, as a congregation, we will be able to support these families practically and prayerfully.

Tuesday - Pray for the uniformed organisations as they meet on various days and at different times during the week. Pray for wisdom for the leaders as they seek to instruct those who come along and as they share the love of God with the children. Pray for a refreshing break over the holidays.

Wednesday - Pray for the schools in our parish, and for our minister and parish assistant as they visit them to lead Assemblies or talk to individual classes. Remember the teachers, especially in their preparation of RME lessons. Again pray for a refreshing break over the holidays.

Thursday - Pray for the two Scripture Union groups as they meet weekly - one in Dalgety school and the other in Inverkeithing High School. Pray for those leading the groups; - Liz in the primary school and Rena in the secondary school. Pray that their enthusiasm and commitment will rub off on the children! Pray they too will have a refreshing break over the holiday.

Friday - Pray for the children who, as a congregation, we support - Parbaty in India, Emmanuel in Kenya and Wouddaline in Haiti. Give thanks for the opportunity we have to share God's love with them.

Saturday - Think of the children you know in your family, your street, our church. Think of the children you meet in the shops, on a walk, at a bus stop, in the park. Think of the children who come visit you at home. Pray for them and ask God to show you how you can share the love of Jesus with them.

“Children have never been very good at listening to their elders, but they have never failed to imitate them!”
