

Prayer Sheet

Prayers this week come from Release International.

Sunday - NIGERIA

Please continue to pray for the release of many Christian girls and women being held captive by Boko Haram. They include 15 year old Leah Sharibu who is being held as a 'slave' because she refused to recant her faith.

Monday - PAKISTAN

Thank God for the acquittal and release of Punjab farm labourer Asia Bibi after nine years in jail on 'blasphemy' charges. Ask God to protect her and her family and enable them to rebuild their lives.

Tuesday - CHINA

In some areas, government officials have enlisted schools to promote the idea that religion is 'bad for children' and against Communist Party thought. Pray this will provoke families to explore why faith is so dangerous.

Wednesday - IRAQ

The Christian minority in Iraq are suffering less persecution than during the Islamic State insurgency but the political instability means that they are not protected as a community. Pray that the Government will take firm action to uphold religious liberty for all.

Thursday - AFGHANISTAN

Praise God that when the Taliban asked one state governor to take action against Christians but provided no proof of their alleged misdeeds, the governor threatened to prosecute the Taliban if they present groundless accusations again.

Friday - ERITREA

Twen, now in her 30s, has been in jail for more than 13 years and has suffered brutal treatment. When asked how people should pray for her, her only prayer request was that God would be glorified in Eritrea. Praise God for Twen's faith, and ask Him to answer her prayer.

Saturday - NORTH KOREA

Pray that North Korean officials will stop seeing Christians as 'bad citizens' but rather as a positive social force.

Notices

Book of the month is, "The Screwtape Letters" by C. S. Lewis. Dedicated to his friend, J. R. R. Tolkien, this masterpiece of satire has for 70 years entertained and enlightened millions with its sly and ironic portrayal of human life from the vantage point of the demon Screwtape. At once wildly comic and strikingly original, the correspondence of the worldly wise old devil to his nephew Wormwood shows C. S. Lewis at his darkest and most playful. This book can be borrowed from the church library.

Thinking Aloud

An Eye For....The Other Cheek?

Forgive others so that God forgives us?

Punish wrongdoers to maintain justice?

Draw a line under previous wrong-dong and move on?

Start a vigilante group keep your neighbourhood safe?

An eye for an eye or turn the other cheek?

What are your thoughts on justice, revenge, mercy and forgiveness?

Come and share or come and just listen.

Refreshments and fellowship await at

6 Forth Reach

On WEDNESDAY 13TH Feb (Note change of day)

At 7.30pm

All welcome

New Venture - The Lighthouse. This will provide a meeting place for those of all ages who are either new to the church, new to the area or just want somewhere to go for an hour or so to meet with others. The Lighthouse will be open in Rooms 1 and 2 on the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays of each month from 2.00 pm - 4.00 pm providing light refreshments. If you would like to be involved in setting up and/or clearing away, making and/or serving tea and coffee or just coming along, there is a Sign Up Sheet on the Don't Pass By Table. All are invited and would be most welcome.

Lent Groups

This year there will be the opportunity to join in Lent Groups - either one hour Bible Study, or 90 minute 'House Group' which would include worship and prayer time.

So we can gauge interest there are sign up sheets with a range of times/ groups. If you are interested please add your name - it does not bind you in to coming along, simply trying to accommodate as many as possible in the way that is right for them. ALL groups will be using the same starting material.
