CrossReach Perinatal Services

Supporting parents and families whose mental health is affected during pregnancy and/or following the birth of a child through counselling an psychotherapy, therapeutic groups and infant massage.

- For the mothers and fathers who entrust CrossReach Perinatal Services with their deepest difficulties, fears and pain and allow them the privilege of being alongside them.
- Remember those who find themselves isolated from family or their communities because of distance, relationship difficulties, feeling unable to connect or being culturally isolated.
- For the volunteers who work tirelessly throughout the services, for new volunteers starting and for those in training.
- The continuation of positive relationships and collaboration with the many health professionals who work with families.
- The development of digital health connections for families who cannot access services because they live in areas where there is no counselling provision.
- Thanks for the long service of the Infant Massage instructor and for two staff members, newly trained in this role.
- Ongoing positive working relationships and amongst the team of staff and volunteers.

Notices

Today we welcome Rev David Coleman, Chaplain to Eco-Congregation Scotland, to share in our service. There will be an opportunity to speak to him, ask questions, after the morning service.

Men's Breakfast Saturday 9th of February – date for your diary! - This years programme kicks off with our guest speaker being Callum Henderson, Director of Comfort International. Callum established the charity in 1999 after his initial visit to a traumatised Rwanda and this year it is celebrating 20 years of transformation. Since that first visit many, many lives have been touched and transformed not only in Rwanda, but also DR Congo, Burundi and Uganda as the charity has expanded its activities. Callum's knowledge of the region and testimony of how he has seen God at work is amazing. He will be fresh back from a trip out to Rwanda & Burundi and will be able to give us a current insight into the charity's activities and future plans. This one is not to be missed!

Book of the month is, "The Screwtape Letters" by C. S. Lewis. Dedicated to his friend, J. R. R. Tolkien, this masterpiece of satire has for 70 years entertained and enlightened millions with its sly and ironic portrayal of human life from the vantage point of the demon Screwtape. At once wildly comic and strikingly original, the correspondence of the worldly wise old devil to his nephew Wormwood shows C. S. Lewis at his darkest and most playful. This book can be borrowed from the church library.

Thinking Aloud

An Eye For....The Other Cheek?

Forgive others so that God forgives us?

- Punish wrong doers to maintain justice?
- Draw a line under previous wrong-doing and move on?
- Start a vigilante group, keep your neighbourhood safe?
- An eye for an eye or turn the other cheek?

What are your thoughts on justice, revenge, mercy and forgiveness?

Come and share or come and just listen. Refreshments and fellowship await at - 6 Forth Reach on Tues 12th Feb at 7.30pm

All welcome.
