

Prayer Sheet

“Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, ‘Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?’ And I said, ‘Here am I. Send me.’”

Following is a poem about being used by God.

Being There

Wild Spirit of the living God,
Make me cool waters
In someone else's parched land;
A sheltered place for the fallen
A haven for the wounded;
A safe place for the frightened
A highway for the wanderer;
A still place for the fugitive
A home for the weary;
A strong place for the feeble
And a hill for the ones
Who want to see further,
Wild Spirit of the living God,
Give me a listening heart
Instead of an informed mind
So that I meet someone else's need
Rather than my own,
Through Jesus Christ my Lord,
Amen.

Is the Church of Scotland the One True Church?

- Do Anglicans, Methodists and Seventh Day Adventists get it wrong?
- How important is it that the person sitting next to you believes what you believe?
- Where do you worship when you are on holiday outside Scotland?
- As the national church should we provide a public service?

Come and share why you worship at DPC and whether this is your first choice or not. Or come and listen to other people's opinions. Refreshments and a warm welcome available for all at 6 Forth Reach on Tuesday 17th March at 7.30pm.

Book of the Month is "Tortured for Christ " by Richard Wurmbrand. This is a classic story of amazing faith in shocking circumstances. Its message remains urgent and relevant: thousands of Christians are still persecuted and tortured around the world today, suffering solely for their belief in Jesus Christ. Richard Wurmbrand endured years of physical and mental torture in prison, yet his witness led to the conversion of his torturers! After his release he went on to tell the West the truth about Christianity behind the Iron Curtain despite the fact that might have led to him returning to prison. This book can be borrowed from the church library.
